Conduct and Other Camp Policies

We want our camps to be a fun, positive and safe experience for all campers. We expect all campers and parents to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner and to support our efforts to achieve this goal, including honoring camp policies. Accordingly, the JCCSF reserves the right to suspend or dismiss your child from the summer camp program if the JCCSF concludes in its sole discretion that your child's or your conduct is disruptive to the summer camp program.

No refunds or reduction in fees are issued for days missed due to suspension or dismissal.

Additional camp policies are set forth in the Parent Manual to be posted at www.jccsf.org/summercamps in early June.

Wait List

Spaces from the wait list are filled only by the Camp Office on a strict first-come, first-served basis. Cancelling camp participants may not offer their spot to another child.

- Should a camp be filled, you may request that your child be placed on a wait list for the camp.
- If a space becomes available, the Camp Office will contact you to see if you are still interested in enrolling your child in the camp.
- If you accept, enrollment will be subject to the policies noted above.
- Should you decline or fail to complete enrollment within 48 hours, you will lose your place on the wait-list for that particular camp and/or session.

Financial Assistance

The JCCSF strives to make its programs accessible to individuals and families from all backgrounds. Thanks to the generosity of the Community Jewish Day Camp Scholarship Fund of the Jewish Community Endowment Fund, the JCCSF may be able to supplement its financial assistance to qualified families. We strongly encourage families to submit completed applications with all required documents by April 1, 2009. Applications received after April 1 will be considered only if funds remain available. Financial aid applications are available at www.jccsf.org/summercamps. For additional information, please call the Camp Office at 415.292.1250.
